MISSIONS AND MY MISSION

Missions Conference week is a time looked forward to by many students and this year the week chosen was October 25-28.

"Missions and My Mission" was the theme with emphasis put on both foreign and local missions. There were speakers from numerous countries who gave workshops for the college and seminary. Films on missions were also shown during the afternoons.

Special speakers for the week were Pastor Jim Custer and Professor Walter Baker who spoke on being called to missions. Special music, interviews of nationals, and other items related to missions were also present during the week's meetings.

Fall retreat

A time of relaxation and fun was in store for those who went to the Fall Retreat. On Saturday, 14 classes were offered and the retreat packed up to leave for David Mark. The big activity for the day was the Beanie Bowl with the sophomores once again coming out on top. Following that there were games, volleyball, and soccer. Supper was served there with a sing-along following. After the day's activities, all packed up and returned to campus again refreshed for the studies ahead.

Beta dorm Bible study

S. Adriansen exhorts Beta Dads.

D. McAvoy leads a small group Bible study.

Beta boys listen to a special speaker.

Two students in a dorm room.

Beta Bible Studies is an opportunity for the guys to get to know the Lord and each other better. The studies are held on three levels: small group, RA and dorm meetings.

Meeting on Wednesday evenings, the small groups study various relevant topics and have a time of prayer. The Beta Club is usually invited to the RA giving a spiritual challenge, while in the dorm Bible meetings either Steve Adriansen or a special outside speaker share something from the Bible. In all, the time spent in these studies has helped the Beta boys grow into mature Christian men.

A dorm Bible study, the serious side of Beta Dads.

An evening in Paris

From a grand ballroom to a quiet cafe, a night in Paris is a romantic experience that's sure to last a lifetime.
The city's rich history and culture make it a perfect destination for a romantic trip.
From the Eiffel Tower to the Louvre, there are so many things to see and do in Paris.
And with so many options for dining and drinking, you're sure to find something that's right for you and your partner.

You'll Be Captured By 'Prisoner'

By Joy Huffman

What's so funny about a nervous breakdown? A lot! ... Well, at least there is in "The Prisoner of Second Avenue," a Neil Simon play chosen to be performed at Grace this fall.

The story revolves around Mel Edison, a loud mouthed New Yorker who is driven beyond his breaking point by unemployment, crime, unfriendly neighbors, bark-chose this particular play is because we're planning a major production for second semester so we wanted to work with a smaller cast this fall, and I felt we had just the right people to fit the parts," commented Grill.

Those students involved in the production of "The Prisoner of Second Avenue" include Kip Normand as Mel, Kathy Allison as Ed-will be performed in Theatre" November 15, 16, 18, and 19. Come and enjoy yourself!

Dining Together

Faculty members in both the college and the seminary have been given tickets for eight breakfasts or lunches in the dining commons. The purpose of this new program is to provide opportunity for faculty and students to meet informally whether for academic discussions, to work together on school projects and activities, or simply for Christian fellowship. Students, why not invite a professor to have lunch with you to discuss your studies, activities, or concerns?

Day of Prayer. It is a time for reflection and prayer on the part of both the faculty and staff and the student body. The day is designed to allow for reflection on one's life and his relationship to God.

Assisting us in this effort this semester will be pastor Donald Engram of the Church of the Open Door in Elyria, Ohio. Pastor Engram is a much sought-after speaker at Bible conferences as well as college settings. A graduate of Moody and Sterling College, he went on to receive his degree from HanYang University of Seoul, Korea. He has traveled the world extensively, including visits to China, India, and several countries behind the Iron Curtain.

Before entering the ministry full time, Pastor Engram worked with the Detroit Voice of Christian Youth. He was actively involved in its varied programs and rallies.
Presently, along with his duties as a pastor, he is also the president of American Board and treasurer of the World Board for International Needs.

Mrs. Miriam Uphouse: 20 years of service

The 1983-84 Heritage staff would like to dedicate this edition of the Grace College yearbook to Mrs. Miriam Uphouse.

Mrs. Uphouse has held a prestigious position, a visible position during her years here.

She was Indiana Merit Mother of the Year in 1977; Grace College Alumna of the Year in 1981; and in "Who's Who of American Women" 1983-1984. She served as President of the Association of Christians in Student Development, 1969-71 and 1978-80.

As the Dean of Women, affectionately called "Mrs. U.," Mrs. Uphouse was always willing to listen and try to assist any student.

Mrs. Uphouse calls herself a "late bloomer," receiving her degree at age 45. Already an LPN, she received her B.A. from Grace in 1963, while teaching part-time. She also has an M.S. in Guidance and Counseling from St. Francis College. She taught Introduction to Counseling for 10 years.

Mrs. Uphouse summarizes, "If I had it to do over again, I gladly would. The plusses have been so much more than the minuses."

Thank you, Mrs. Uphouse, for your years at Grace College.

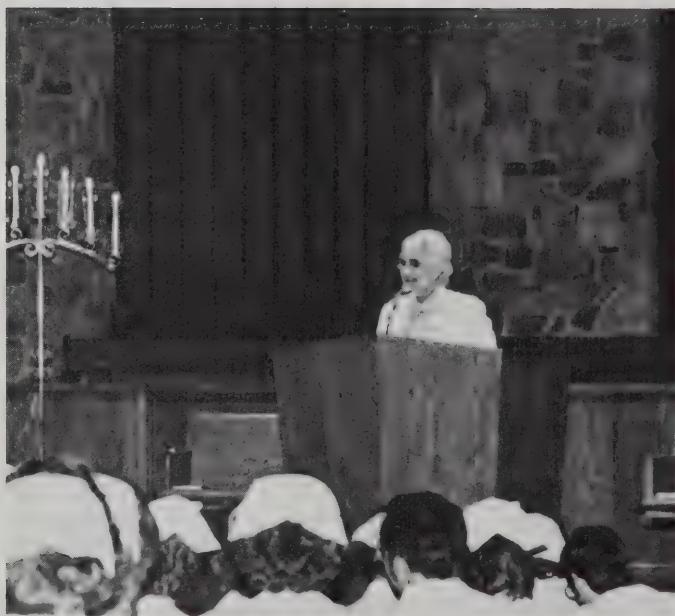

Nurses strive to

The Pinning and Capping of nurses brings recognition and awards to outstanding nursing students. This is well-deserved after a long year of studying and great effort. They are all recognized for accomplishing so much.

It was held at W.L.G.B.C. with Mrs. Uphouse speaking and special music by Veisa Dingus, Ginger Merck, Cindy Kuykendall, and Julie Schumacher.

All the Nursing students up on stage!

Mrs. Uphouse shares words of wisdom with the nursing students.

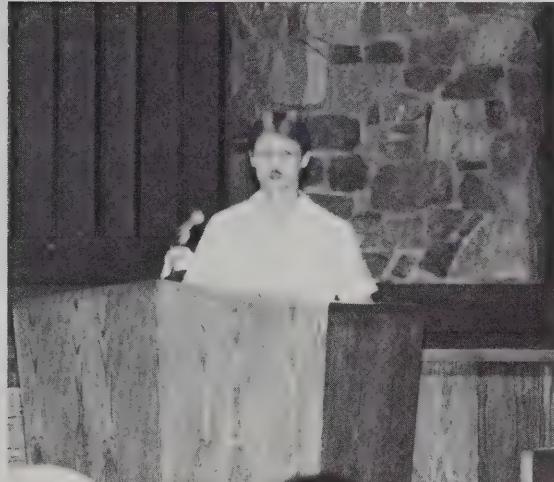

Dr. Woodring is not only a teacher, but a caring instructor who cares about her students.

When I Remember

by Kim Kyle

I came to Grace a little shy,
but I opened up by and by.
Stage Band, Brass gave things to do;
learned to play new instruments, too.
Travel and ministry, tours over break.
Art club, and Dorm Rep. they've all been great.
Classes and lectures and papers and such;
Now, they don't seem to matter as much as friendships, and laughter, and dates, banquets, parties and ice skates.
wondering what SAB had planned,
and the very first time he held my hand.
Books and projects have taught me a lot.
But, when I remember it will not be the learning that sticks in my mind, but the sharing and devoting my time to working with friends in Senate, talking with the people I've met,
the all-nighters I've pulled, the pranks I've played,
the times I've cried, and the times I've prayed.
It won't be the "A's" I recall,
but the people who have lived on my hall.
It won't be as editor I'll remember this year,
but the responsibility it taught me so clear.
I'll forget all the quizzes and tests I took;
and remember the countless games of Rook.
The facts have stayed in my head from the start;
but, the real lessons I've learned with my heart.
The walks by the lake, talkies half the night;
these are the teachers that shed some light on the rules of life, and the way to live.
Four special years, they went so fast.
But, there are memories to cherish, memories that last.
The years flew so quickly and now they're gone;
and, I realize sadly it's time to move on.

Halloweener are helped by Gracies!

Kid's night at grace

Heads up!

What was all the excitement and noise echoing through the halls of Alpha on October 18? Why were monsters, strawberries, computers, a soccer player and cheerleader walking on Grace's campus? It was Kid's Night at Grace.

Several times during the year Grace has a kid's night for the faculty and staffs' kids. It's a time when college students voluntarily take a part in entertaining the kids for a few hours while their parents can have some time to themselves. On this night the kids tricked or treated down the halls of Alpha. College students opened their doors to monsters and many others when they gave out candy. Prizes were given to kids wearing either the ugliest, the cutest, or the most original costumes. Everyone enjoyed themselves while playing the games. The evening ended when the kids went home.

Which one is scarier?

Pirates of Fredrick woos the daughters.

Penzance

Pirates, fair maidens, policemen, and even a crazy Major-General made up the cast of this spring's operetta, "The Pirates of Penzance."

Stunning the audiences at the Wagon Wheel with their music and acting, the cast looked like true professionals. R. Meads led the Grace cast of alumni and students by playing the main character of Fredrick. J. Huffman played opposite of him with the female lead, Mabel.

The setting of the play took place around 1870 on a coast in England. There were many conflicts with the Pirates vs. the Policemen, Daughters vs. Pirates, and Fredrick vs. the Pirate King. It ended with the expected happy ending, and the audience left each of the five evenings looking forward to Grace's next production.

Cross country team has successful season

The 1983 Cross Country team was once again coached by Prof. Ken Taylor.

Even though they had several injuries throughout the year, they placed sixth in NAIA competition and fifth in NCCAA out of 22 teams.

Looking back over the year it's hard to choose anyone outstanding, because they all were. Dave Cross posted the best time of the year for Grace, but B. Zellner and D. Harper ran excellently in all races, too. D. Van Houten and N. Dean were the impressive freshmen for the year.

The women's team ran to a fourth place finish in NAIA competition and finished fifth, like the men, in the NCCAA meet. K. Friend was the outstanding women's runner setting a school record and being named on the NCCAA coaches' fall American team.

The Grace College tennis team, headed by first-year coach Mike Grill, registered a 7-3 record for the 1983 season, placed second in the Mid-Central Conference, tied for fifth in the state NAIA District 21 Competition and qualified its top doubles team for the National NAIA Tournament in Kansas City. The team of Greg Gibson and Alan Mumaw participated in the nationals held the week of May 27 in Kansas City. It was the second time in the history of Grace tennis for players to participate in the NAIA nationals. Jon Hueni was the first to be eligible for the nationals having won the district singles title in 1975. Other members of the 1983 Grace team in addition to Gibson and Mumaw included Rich Haddad, Charley Hueni, John Ruth, Rod Moore, Dan Kent, and Trace McGeath.

Hung puts one in.

The 1983 Soccer season at Grace College was a tremendous success.

Coached by Dave Diehl, the team really went places, one of those being Florida. During Thanksgiving the team represented the district in NAIA competition. Although they were able to come away victorious, it was a good time for the guys and they learned a lot.

Among the list of seniors: Tim Yocom, Doug Boerema, Pete Bitner, and Hung Vuong.

The team played together, as a team. That was the secret of their success. Among that team was the freshman standout John Brandt, who received the Rookie of the Year award and beat the record of goals scored in a season.

Despite many injuries, the team came together and played well.

Johnny gets helpful hints from Rusty Annis.

Wounded in Action: Torrey Bauer, Mark Schindler, and Bill Heffelfinger. They still come to cheer on their team despite bad weather.

Sometimes you have to fight for the ball.

Volleyball

A year for rebuilding could accurately describe this year's volleyball team. The team was built of all freshman girls.

The final season record stood at 5-20 which isn't bad considering this was the first time any of the girls had played college ball. The team was coached by R. Stover and S. Stover both recent graduates of Grace themselves. S. Drummond was the outstanding player of the team who spiked the ball time after time. Next year's team is looked forward to with anticipation as a lot of the girls will be returning as Sophomores and several upperclassmen unable to play this year will be back next season.

Turkey tourney victories

Leading the Lancers this season: John Boal, Lane Lewellen, Neal Frantz, Neal Frantz, and Coach Kessler.

Accepting the 1983 Turkey Tourney Award are the graduating seniors, being presented by Chaplin Dr. Skip Forbes.

Surprising the opponents, Doug Wilcoxson makes another two points.

Lane LeWellan takes the first plunge through the loop to victory.

M e n s'

Once again, Grace College was represented with a fine basketball team from the men.

Coach Jim Kessler, assisted by Gregg Miller, Dr. Forbes, and Prof. Gordon, led the team to many victories, on and off the court.

The three seniors for the Lancers were John Boal, Neal Frantz, and Lane Lewallen, all of whom will be missed greatly.

The Lancers finished their season 21-13.

Many awards were received because of the basketball season. John Boal was named NAIA District 21 Player of the Year for basketball.

It was a fine season for the Lancers, and Grace was proud of its team.

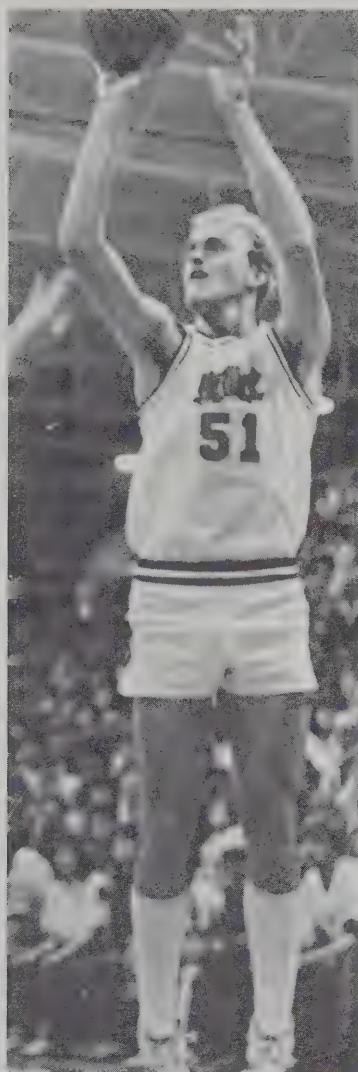

Here goes two points.

For the first time since 1972, the Grace College Baseball Team won the Mid Central Conference baseball championship. That made it an exceptional year for Rookie coach, Tim Boal.

Returning starters included: Randy Roberts, Ron Roddy, Neal Frantz, Ron Givens, Ed Erickson, Phil Wiley and Don Yoders.

Assistant coaches were Jeff Kowatch, Steve Petty, Tom Roy and Scott Erickson.

The team had a great year and traveled to Florida over Christmas break.

1984 was the year for the biggest achievement in the history of Grace College softball as the women's team won second place in the double elimination statewide National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics District 21 tourney.

Grace had a very young team, with only two seniors: Joyce Wenger and Anita Barr.

Three Lancers were named to the all district NAIA team. Honored were Anita Barr, Jolie Eckhardt and pitcher Donna Mohler.

The team had a rebuilding year and improved its record tremendously over the previous year.

Terry Weinberger, a first year coach at Grace, led her girls and taught them on and off the court.

Rachael Walter was a team spark and also put the points in when needed. Cheryl Lancaster and Jolie Eckhardt assisted in the point scoring area. Janine Zeltwanger led in the rebounding.

It was a good year for the Lady Lancers.

Golf

For the first time in the history of Grace College golf, the Lancers broke the 300 mark and as a result won the Bethel Invitational held at Eberhardt Course in Mishawaka. Grace was the trophy winner with 296 with Notre Dame finishing behind Grace.

Grace finished third in the MCC. Tim Koerten was named to the all MCC Team being the conference's third low medalist for the season.

They also qualified for the NAIA District 21 finals for the first time.

Coached by Jim Kessler, the team broke many new records.

Included on the 1984 team were: Tim Koerten, Rick Stair, Kevin Eichelberger, Rich Haddad, Matt Powell, Mike Richards, and Diane Dean.

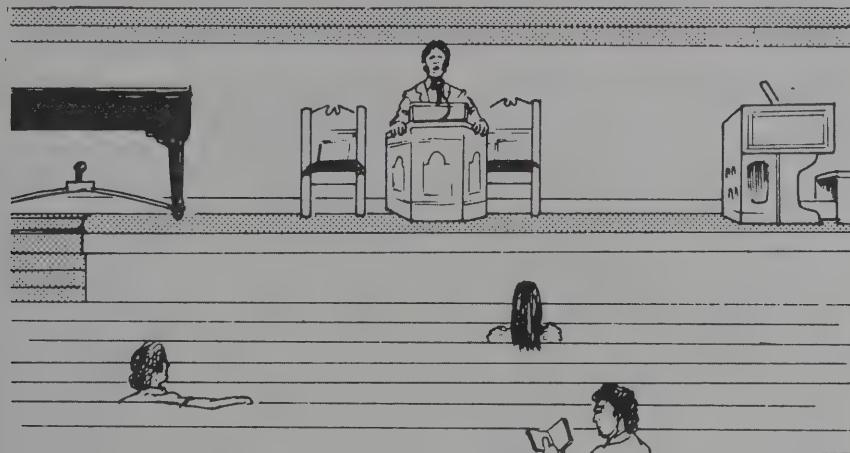

Cheerleading

The 1983-1984 cheerleaders were: Ginella Plott, Pam Thompson, Jeri Ashcraft, Tracie Smith, Sheryl Kantenwein, and Jenny Randolph. They attended the soccer, basketball, and cross country meets. They cheered the teams on, sometimes in spite of poor and cold weather.

Coached by Cozy Pittman, they integrated new things into the cheerleading squad.

This team ministers weekly in various nursing homes providing students with opportunities in ministering to the elderly, disabled and handicapped through singing, song-leading, preaching, testimonies and one on one sharing and caring.

Puppet team

This specialty team uses the medium of puppets to share gospel presentations at special events and public services. Team members master the techniques of puppetry and gain the experience in public preaching and music ministries. They travelled on weekends to churches of the members. There they used their puppets to share the good news of Christ.

The puppet team, led by Sherrick Wade, takes time from packing the van for their weekend travels, to pose for picture.

G-Club builds men

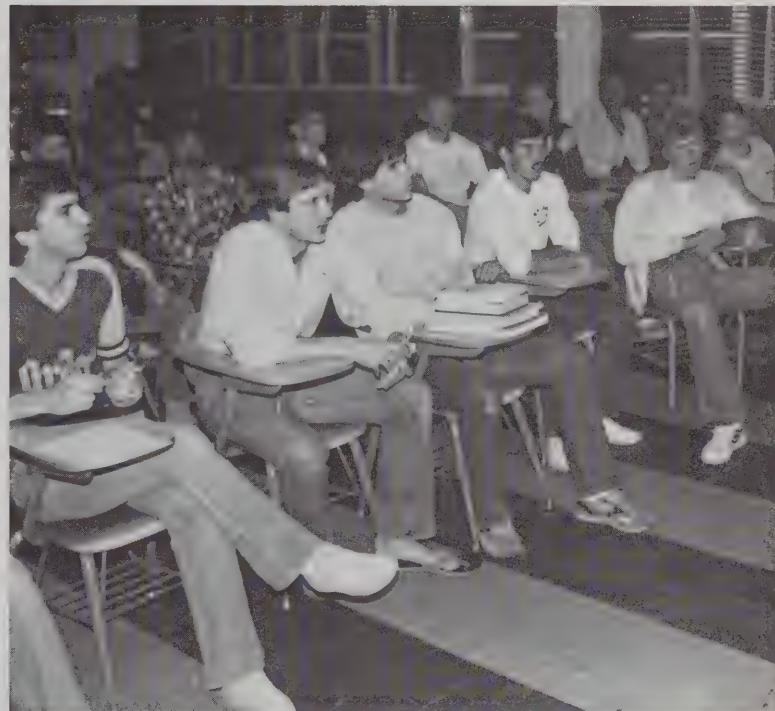

G-Club, Grace College's men's athletic varsity club, once again had a full year of fun and activities.

They sold concessions at all basketball games, supported each other's teams throughout the year, and had the traditional G-Club initiation.

They had a week in chapel which they grand finaled with them singing for the student body in chapel.

Initiation was once again superb with the closing at Alpha with the G-Club-Men-To-Be trying to get a date to walk down at the lake with them.

President Scott Dennull led G-Club to a great year.

The main purpose and objective of art club is to have fellowship among interested people. The club has around 20-25 members and is open to anyone with an interest for art. It is a way of ministering to the community through art for them. Things such as sign painting and invitations are done free or for a minimal charge. They also help students who are having problems in art classes. Mrs. Coverstone is the advisor and two main projects they have completed this year are the Homecoming Banner in the Parade and the Grace Lancer mural in the gym.

This year was another busy year for members of Resounding Brass. The 16 piece brass ensemble performed over 70 concerts, traveling to churches and schools on weekends throughout the year and on tour.

Directed by Dr. Dennis Herrick, the group traveled two and a half weeks over winterim performing in Missouri, Oklahoma, Texas, Tennessee, and Kentucky.

Resounding Brass represented Grace in two unique ways during the year. They were the featured performers at the Christian Instrumental Director's Association Convention held at Taylor University. They also performed at the Notre Dame University Brass Festival. Grace was the only Christian college or university represented.

Graduating seniors, Sandy Sacher and Rick Stewart, were charter members of the group.

Belles

The Grace Belles is a group of young ladies from Grace College that minister to churches and organizations through the special sounds of bells and vocal arrangements. They are directed by Mrs. Ethel Anderson.

This year, the bells became official possession of Grace College by a donation from the Polman family.

With the fine set of bells, the Belle Choir was able to travel and share the sound of Christ with many.

Grace College Choirs

The vocal part of the music department this 1983-84 school year was once again filled with choirs, touring and ministering through song. Concert choir, Freshman choir, Chapel choir, and small groups from these larger ones all participated in the music program.

Directed by Prof. Ogden, the choirs joined together in a combination effort and traveled to the recording studio to make an album that is entitled "I Am."

During the various vacations, instead of going home or traveling south, these choirs gave of their time and traveled to churches and schools, singing the gospel.

It was a long year, but much was learned and enjoyed.

The Concert Choir joins in song at one of their Sunday morning services.

At the recording studio, the choirs sing their hearts out.

The Freshman Choir take a break and enjoy some of the sunshine before singing again.

Junior-Senior Ball

Wabash, Indiana

April 27, 1984

6:00 PM

The evening began as a journey to Wabash to the Honeywell Center. There began the Junior-Senior Ball. The banquet, an honor held for the seniors, annually, was entitled the Junior-Senior Ball, the seniors being the Knights of Glory.

Guests mingled in the luxurious rooms while pictures were taken and refreshments were enjoyed. At the announcement of every couple, they were seated, greeted, and then a delicious dinner was served.

After dinner, a presentation of slides of the seniors was given, and then Twila Paris lopped off the evening with her sweet, melodious voice.

The evening was a huge success! All then travelled back to Winona Lake.

Taylor Publishing Company in Dallas, Texas, printed the 1983-84 Heritage. Mr. Robert Mahl served as the company's representative.

Students labored many long hours and exercised their imaginations to create an entertaining yearbook that would capture the memories of the school year.

The theme of the yearbook and of our staff has been commitment. Life is full of commitments that must be kept. The staff this year has been committed to bringing a good yearbook to the student body. In turn, Taylor Publishing Company has been committed to helping us in our endeavor. They have given us much time and advice to improve the yearbook and make it something special for you.

We hope that you appreciate this year's Heritage.

Thank you, Taylor Publishing Company and Bob Mahl.
